DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-60, drawn to a razor cartridge and associated dispenser, classified in class 30, subclass 40.2.
 - II. Claims 61-63, drawn to a method of using a cartridge dispenser, classified in class 30, subclass 532.
 - III. Claims 64 and 65, drawn to a method of manufacture, classified in class 53, subclass 396.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product. See MPEP § 806.05(h). In the instant case the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product, such as the process of removing the cartridge while it is not attached to the handle.
3. Inventions I and III are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make another and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process

Art Unit: 3725

(MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the process as claimed could be used to make a dispenser not having angled sections.

4. Inventions II and III are related as process of using and process of making, which are different inventive categories, and therefore require a showing of one-way distinctness only. Since III could be used to make any product, including one without angled cartridge dividers, as required by II one way distinctness is shown. Where there are claims to all three categories, product, process of making and process of use, a three way restriction may be made when the process of making is distinct from the product. This is true in the present case, and so the restriction between Inventions II and III is proper (MPEP §806.05(i) and 37 CFR 1.141(b)).

5. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
